

Tell-Tale* – Grain of Sand Theatre
a part of fallFRINGE November 1-17, 2013

Award-Winning play returns – with new twists!

WASHINGTON — Grain of Sand Theatre reprises its sell-out, Best-Drama-Award hit from the 2013 Capital Fringe Festival. Written by local playwright Hunter Styles, this version of Tell-Tale has been streamlined and reworked for added intensity and drama. A car crash survivor discovers a strange connection to the woman whose blood now runs through his veins. Now he's on a mission to uncover the truth about her dangerous secret in this thriller based on Poe's "The Tell-Tale Heart."

About You the Artist or Company

Grain of Sand Theatre is dedicated to telling stories that stimulate the audience and artist by exploring the unusual through the familiar, and the familiar through the unusual. The company has participated at the Capital Fringe Festival three times, winning two Audience Choice Awards for Best Drama: it's debut production, Hamlet: Reframed in 2011, and Tell-Tale in 2013. In 2012, they returned to Fringe with Raising Cane: a Family Portrait, and rang in the holidays with You Can't Get a Decent Margarita at the North Pole.
