About Breast In Show

Welcome to the "Chemo Café," where strangers become friends sharing an unforgettable journey of laughter and tears on the road to healing. Join these warriors on a life-affirming rollercoaster of emotions in this musical that brings humor to the tumor.

Eileen Mitchard and VoicesBC

Everyone knows someone who has been affected by breast cancer. Each of the more than 200 patients, family and medical personnel we interviewed told us that they experienced the emotional highs and lows of a rollercoaster ride.

We believe that musical theatre has the power to touch people in a way that no other medium can. We truly hope that there will be a moment that connects with you in one or more of the characters (Wendy, Pete, Chelsea, Shirley, Tim and Desiree) that compels you to raise your voice with these "warriors" for change.
