Kubrilesque

Kubrilesque: or a Musical Parody with a Tease, combines burlesque with many styles of dance. The award winning show has played too sold out audiences in cities worldwide. Kubrilesque is a cohesive piece of art and the ultimate showgirl experience.

Cherry Kiss Productions

Crystal Swarovski has been performing her whole life. Her burlesque career has taken her to 17 different countries. She co-created Cherry Kiss Productions in 2004 out of Los Angeles, with a goal of combining burlesque, variety arts, and theater. In addition to live productions, Crystal has created, under the name Cherry Kiss productions, film and video productions and an internet source for the burlesque community, burlesquebitch.com. Kubrilesque started work shopping in 2006, and was a full show by 2008. Members of the group toured Europe since then twice, once appearing in a 10 day run at The Prague Fringe Festival. In 2012, Kubrilesque took the prize at The Great Southern Exposure in North Carolina, for best group act at the festival. Capital Fringe is Kubrilesque's second fringe festival, and this is a D.C. premiere for the show.

About Capital Fringe

Capital Fringe is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization founded in 2005 with the purpose of connecting exploratory artists with adventurous audiences by creating outlets and spaces for creative, cutting-edge, and contemporary performance in the District. Capital Fringe's vital programs ensure the growth and continued health of the local and regional performing arts community by helping artists become independent producers while stimulating the vibrant cultural landscape in our city.
